

P. WADHWANI COLLEGE OF PHARMACY, YAVATMAL
D.PHARM & B.PHARM COURSE

Matru Pitru Pujan - Worshipping Parents

REPORT

Date and time: 14/02/2024, 12.00-2.00 PM

Audience: Students of D. Pharm & B. Pharm from P Wadhwani college of Pharmacy, Yavatmal and Faculty

Name of the Speaker: Mrs Shalini Dharat, Teacher at Zilha Parishad school, Yavatmal

Mrs Mundafale Social Worker

Guest on the stage: Dr M. D. Kitukale : Principal, Pataldhamal Wadhwani
College of Pharmacy, Yavatmal

Matru Pitru Pujan - Worshipping Parents

Guidance to Students for Valentine's Day

Date:14.02.2024

Speaker: Mrs. Mundafale & Mrs Shalini Dharat

Introduction: Guest lecture started with the welcome of the guest by budding tree. Both the dignitaries along with Principal Dr M D Kitukale performed Saraswati puja. Mrs Rupali Chavhan introduced dignitaries. Mrs Shalini Dharat & Mrs. Mundafale delivered an insightful guest lecture on the significance of worshipping parents, particularly in the context of Valentine's Day. The lecture aimed to provide guidance to students on honouring and expressing love towards their parents amidst the commercialized celebration of romantic love.

Key Points Covered:

1. Traditional Values: Mrs Shalini Dharat & Mrs. Mundafale emphasized the importance of upholding traditional values and respecting one's parents as a fundamental aspect of Indian culture.
2. Matru Pitru Pujan: She introduced the concept of "Matru Pitru Pujan," which translates to worshipping parents. This practice involves expressing gratitude, love, and respect towards one's parents through various rituals and gestures.
3. Valentine's Day Perspective: While acknowledging the prevalence of Valentine's Day celebrations among young people, Mrs. Mundafale encouraged students to redefine the concept of love beyond romantic relationships. She emphasized the idea of including parents in the celebration of love on Valentine's Day.
4. Guidance for Students: Practical tips and suggestions were provided to students on how they could honor their parents on Valentine's Day. These included writing heartfelt letters, spending quality time together, preparing meals, or engaging in activities that their parents enjoy.

5. Impact of Matru Pitru Pujan: Mrs. Mundafale shared anecdotes and examples illustrating the profound impact of expressing love and appreciation towards parents. She highlighted how such gestures strengthen family bonds and contribute to emotional well-being.

Notable Insights and Takeaways:

- The lecture highlighted the need to balance modern-day celebrations with timeless values of filial piety and gratitude.
- It underscored the transformative power of small acts of kindness and appreciation in nurturing familial relationships.
- Students were encouraged to reflect on their relationship with their parents and consider ways to express love and respect beyond materialistic gestures.

Conclusion:

Mrs Shalini Dharat & Mrs. Mundafale's lecture on Matru Pitru Pujan provided valuable insights and practical guidance to students on honoring their parents, especially on occasions like Valentine's Day. It served as a reminder of the enduring importance of family bonds amidst evolving cultural trends.

Overall, the lecture was well-received, prompting attendees to reconsider their approach to expressing love and gratitude towards their parents in today's fast-paced world.

Miss Rupali Chavhan expressed vote of thanks on behalf of college.

Principal
(Dr M D Kitukale)
P. Wadhvani College Of Pharmacy Yavatmal